EMPLOYER BARGAINING AGENCY DESIGNATION

Having regard to the failure of The National Elevator and Escalator Association and the Canadian Elevator Contractors Association to comply with the condition in the designation dated March 30, 1978, that designation is hereby revoked and the following substituted therefore:

Pursuant to clause b of subsection 1 of section 127 of The Labour Relations Act, R.S.O.1970, c. 232, as amended, I hereby designate the National Elevator and Escalator Association as the employer bargaining agency to represent in bargaining all employers whose employees are represented by the following affiliated bargaining agents:

1. The International Union of Elevator Constructors; or
2. the following Local Unions: 50, 90 and 96; or
3. any other Local of the International Union of Elevator Constructors which in the future may be chartered to represent journeymen and apprentice elevator constructors;

(which Unions are hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Unions"), in the industrial, commercial and institutional sector of the construction industry in the Province of Ontario, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to represent in bargaining as aforesaid, all employers bound by or parties to:

- (a) certificates of the Ontario Labour Relations Board granted to the Unions or any of them;
- (b) voluntary recognition agreements with the Unions or any of them;
- (c) collective agreements to which the Unions or any of them have been or are party to or bound by, covering the industrial, commercial and institutional sector of the construction industry in the Province of Ontario.
